Root Of Evil
(Start)

This nightmare must be coming from somewhere. Finding the source of the problem should go a long way towards solving it. The victim of the "dog attack," Peter, was a student at the local High School, where your Reflection begins.

Take a Social Test to see if anyone knows anything.

0-6: The victim's class is on a trip to the Museum. Maybe you can bump into someone who knows something there? Your Reflection continues at the Museum.

7+: Rumor has it the victim was quite the bully. James, one of his favorite targets, is often at the Library at this time. Your Reflection continues at the Library.

Root Of Evil (M1)

Rumor has it that Peter had gotten into a huge fight over his ex-girlfriend with a classmate named James. It may just be school gossip, but more than one student claims that James was brought in for questioning at the Police Station.

Your Reflection continues at the Police Station.

Root Of Evil (M2)

As you wander the halls of the museum, the items on display all seem to have a dark story to tell. Death, war, and destruction seem to be all around you. Is The Doubt playing tricks on your mind?

Gain 1 Nightmare.

Your Reflection continues in the Museum.

Root Of Evil
(RJ4)

While James isn't here, the name definitely seemed familiar to the desk clerk. Without much of a lead to go on, you think back to all of the rumors you heard about James. Did he put a curse on Peter with something from the Voodoo Shop? Or has he been training to fight his bully at the Boxing Gym?

Your Reflection can continue at the Voodoo Shop or Boxing Gym.

Root Of Evil (V4)

Madame Violette hasn't seen James, but recognizes you as an Anima and is willing to help you performing a ritual to illuminate your future.

Take a Magic Test(7).

If you pass, you see an image of a high school student spray painting a wall of the Warehouse with an image of The Beast.

Your Reflection continues at the Warehouse.

If you fail, Madame Violette shrugs and replies

"Why not try the Library? It's where I go when I need answers."
Your Reflection continues at the Library.

Root Of Evil (M3)

"Look out! The displays are falling!"

A group of school children are ushered out of the large room to avoid the destruction The Doubt has disguised as falling displays. This is actually the work of a Violence Reaver - surely a spawn of The Beast!

Place a Violence Reaver at the Museum and take a Movement Test (6).

If you pass, you escape the Reaver's notice for now.

If you fail, you must face the Reaver in combat as normal.

Your Reflection continues at the Museum.

Root Of Evil
(BG1)

"James? He's a good kid, he wouldn't start any trouble. He hasn't been by in a few days, but I'm not surprised. I heard him talking about having to go to the Library for some project at school. I gotta be honest, I didn't think kids went to the Library anymore."

Your Reflection continues at the Library.

Root Of Evil (L4)

The newly renovated library is bustling with activity, except for one table in the middle of the room. A large, leather bound book conspicuously lays there. Paging through the book, you realize the stories inside describe dreams that you've had in the past.

Gain 1 Magic Technique.

Your Reflection continues at the Library.

Root Of Evil (1-2)

Take a Social Test (5).

If you pass, you find one of Peter's classmates who confirms that he had be fighting with a fellow student named James. He also tells you James can normally be found at the Warehouse after school, working on some sort of art project.

If you fail, you can't find anyone who has more information about Peter's death and decide to investigate the Library further.

Your Reflection continues at the Library.

Root Of Evil (43)

After some looking around, you notice a computer has been left on. A browser remains open to a forum dedicated to city gossip. It appears someone was reading a thread about the recent "grotesque" graffiti in the Warehouse.

Your Reflection continues at the Library.

Root Of Evil (W1)

The rotted out walls of the warehouse have come to life with a horrific mural that depicts people being torn apart by a giant hell-beast. A young man fitting James' description sees you approach and takes off running.

Take a Movement Test (6).

If you pass, you catch up to James who promises to continue the fight until The Beast is gone.

Take the James' Promise card from the Clues & Artifacts Deck.

If you fail, James has slipped away, but his mural should still help stop The Beast.

Take the James' Painting card from the Clues & Artifacts Deck.

Angelic Assistance
(Start)

You awaken with the sounds of battle and the blowing of trumpets still ringing in your head. You can't get the memory of the Angelic Host fighting off the Beast out of your mind. You've decided to visit Melisandra's Alley and see if she can help. Once you've told Melisandra your story, she laughs out loud.

"Oh honey, you have to stop being so literal with your understanding of things. Still, I can help you out, for a price. Head Downtown*, and I'll give you a call."*

Your Reflection continues at Downtown.

Angelic Assistance (DT4)

You wander around Downtown, waiting for Melisandra's call. The entire time you wait, you hear a strange muffled buzzing. Before too long you realize you've wandered into a small alley where a Shadow has appeared! Draw a Shadow and fight it.

Once the Shadow is defeated, your phone finally rings.

"Wow, that wasn't supposed to happen! Still, I didn't know you were such a good fighter! Do me a favor and see my buddy Jacob over at the Boxing Gym*. He'll know what's up."*

Your Reflection continues at the Boxing Gym.

Angelic Assistance (DT2)

While she has a reputation for a strange sense of humor, you're surprised that Melisandra has kept you waiting this long. You briefly consider returning to see her, but then recall what happened the last time someone didn't follow her instructions to the letter. Better to just wait here until she finally calls.

Your Reflection continues Downtown.

Angelic Assistance (DT3)

After waiting what seems like an unreasonable amount of time, your phone finally comes to life.

"Okay, pretty simple stuff. There's some awful taint surrounding the Hall of Justice which simply won't do. Part one of the favor is to clear it up. Once you've got that settled, head over to the Hospital for part two."

Spend 2 Conviction to clear the taint on the building.

Your Reflection continues at the Hospital.

Angelic Assistance
(BG1)

"Buddy, I don't know what you said, or did, or asked for, but I'd hate to be in your shoes today." Jacob tosses you headgear and a pair of gloves. "Believe me, this is the easy part. Once we're done here, you gotta head over to the Hospital*. Apparently I'm just needed to test your mettle."*

Take a Combat Test to spar with Jacob.

0-3: Jacob puts you through the ringer, dealing 3 Damage.
4-6: You manage to hold your own, but take 1 Damage in the scuffle.
7+: You escape the sparring session unscathed.

Your Reflection continues at the Hospital.

Angelic Assistance (H4)

As you walk up to the Hospital, you see a commotion at the entrance to the Emergency Room. Asha, a strange fae with healing magics, sees you and hurriedly calls you over. She immediately starts whispering to you

"Pretend you're a doctor. What they're doing isn't going to help this guy. He needs my brand of medicine, and I'm going to need your help."

Take a Magic Test (4).

If you pass, you are able to keep up with Asha's healing ritual, saving the man's life. Soon after, Melisandra will call. "Going out of your way to save a life? That covers the favor. My original idea will have to wait. Come on back to the Alley*."* Your Reflection continues at the Alley.

If you fail, Asha shoos you aside as she rushes in with the patient. Your Reflection continues at the Hospital.

Angelic Assistance (H2)

You sit in the Hospital waiting area for a few minutes before your phone rings.

"Time for part two! This one is even easier than part one. I've had Asha paged for you. I want you to look her in the eye and give her the best insult you can think of. And it better be a good one! I'll know if it's not. Once you've delivered the message, head over to the DCMA HQ*."*

By the time Melisandra gets off the phone, you find yourself face to face with Asha.

Take a Social Test and deliver your best insult.

0-3: Asha stares at you and silently walks away. You may not use the Hospital to heal for the rest of the game.
4+: Asha rolls her eyes at you. "Seriously? Tell Melisandra it'll never clear up if she doesn't stop scratching."

Your Reflection continues at the DCMA HQ.

Angelic Assistance (DC4)

"Did Melisandra send you? Took her long enough! This thing she gave me is going crazy, you have to help me!"

A harried young woman runs up to you holding a small box made of stone.

Take a Magic Test.

0-4: When you touch the box, you feel a sense of horror come over you. Gain 1 Nightmare.
5-7: The box threatens to subsume your will, but you are able to push the sensation back. Lose 1 Conviction.
8+: The box suddenly projects images from a recent dream; Gain 1 Artifact.

"Looks like it's calmed down. Oh, I almost forgot. Melisandra said for you to meet her at the Alley when we were done."
Your Reflection continues at the Alley.

Angelic Assistance (DC2)

You're on your way to the DCMA Headquarters when something odd catches your eye. What can only be described as a herd of cats are staring at brick wall. Stranger still, the wall itself has graffiti of a giant cat face.

Once you draw your attention away, you realize that rather than being distracted for a few seconds, you've been staring at the wall for at least a half hour. That's when you look around and realize there are no cats and no graffiti.

Your reflection continues at the DCMA HQ.

Angelic Assistance (A1)

"One good turn deserves another. And besides, all that running around gave me the time to figure out what the best thing for you would be. Why don't you stick your hand in, see what pops out?"

Melisandra pops the trunk of her car open. The inside of the trunk seems to be filled with an impenetrable darkness. Stick your hand in and Take a Magic Test (7).

If you pass, you pull out a sword with a blade sparkles and makes a strange singing sound when held. Take the Golden Sword from the Clues & Artifacts Deck.

If you fail, you pull out a small, pure white feather. Take the Angelic Feather from the Clues & Artifacts Deck.

Impact Statement
(Start)

Nothing happens in this city without John McCallister at least hearing a rumor about it. You've arranged to meet him at McCallister's Investigations and see what has he has to say.

"I've heard some rumors about this Beast, but nothing concrete. I've got a contact down at the Police Station. They've agreed to slip you a copy of the autopsy report. Maybe that'll help?"

Your Reflection continues at the Police Station.

Impact Statement (P4)

True to his word, the autopsy report for Peter is given to you in a manila envelope. Everything about it is inconsistent - it was declared an accidental death by dog attack, but some of the bites measure almost a foot in length. This definitely wasn't an animal attack.

It looks like you're not the only one who thinks so. You notice a feint DCMA symbol in the corner of the envelope. You should head to DCMA HQ to see if they know anything.

Your Reflection continues at the DCMA HQ.

Impact Statement
(DC4)

It takes a while, but you're finally put in contact with the Field Agent in charge of the case. They agree to fill you in on the case as long as you agree to report back to them.

"So it turns out this kid was mauled on his way to school, which is walking distance from his house. I wouldn't be surprised if another student saw him and could possibly tell us more. Retrace his steps starting at the Park and see what you can dig up."

Your Reflection continues at the Park.

Impact Statement (P4)

You walk through the park, hoping to find some sort of clue, when you hear what sounds like a high pitched whine. You can feel The Doubt pressing upon you, which only serves to prove you are on the right track.

You must Spend 1 Conviction to Dreamwalk through the Park. Doing so will allow you to follow a trail of corruption that leads through the Park and to the High School.

Your Reflection continues at the Museum.

Impact Statement (HS4)

You arrive at the High School just as classes are getting out. You can either try to talk to the students to see if anyone saw anything, or sneak into the school to find out more info on the victim.

If you decide to talk to the students, Take a Social Test (6).

If you pass, you hear a rumor that Peter's ex-girlfriend had to be admitted to the Hospital after claiming she was attacked by a giant dog.
Your Reflection continues at the Hospital.

If you fail or decide to sneak into Peter's locker, your Reflection continues at the High School.

Impact Statement (HS2)

You arrive at the High School just as classes are getting out. You decide to slip past the students filing out and check out Peter's locker.

Once there, you find a stack of notes from someone named Abigail asking Peter to leave her alone. The final note is in a different handwriting and says:

"I hope you're happy now. Abby's parents had her admitted into the Hospital*. I think it's time you back off. Or else."*

Your Reflection continues at the Hospital.

Impact Statement (H1)

"It wants my soul and it'll eat my heart to get at it!"

Abigail lays in bed a hollow, tormented shell who seems too weak to defend herself from the shadows she obviously fears. Before you can get more information out of her, there is a giant crash as the window breaks and a large shadowy dog appears in the room, rushing to attack.

You may either Take a Combat Test (7) to defeat the monster, or Take a Magic Test (6) to ward Abigail from further harm.

If you pass either test, Abigail smiles at you as she finally falls asleep, at peace. Take the Abigail's Peace card from the Clues & Artifact deck.

If you fail either test, the beast continues to torment Abigail's mind and you must find another way to stop it. Take the Abigail's Torment card from the Clues & Artifacts deck.

Shining in the Darkness
(Start)

As you wake up, you find yourself glad that the old cliche of "if you die in your dreams, you die for real" isn't true.

It was a rough night made even rougher by the realization that you're going to have to do it all over again.

You knew the first thing you should do is visit the DCMA HQ.
While your fellow Anima may not agree with you, none of them woke up with their hands covered in blood.

It looks like you've been put on cleanup duty for the moment.

Your Reflection continues at the Voodoo Shop.

Shining in the Darkness (V3)

Either you have impeccable timing, or The Doubt has been awaiting your arrival. As you about to open the door to the VooDoo Shop, a Shadow appears and combat immediately starts.

Your Reflection cannot continue until this Shadow is defeated. It will remain at the VooDoo shop and await your return if it defeats you in combat.

When you defeat the Shadow, the DCMA informs you that there have been multiple Shadow sightings within the city.

You must defeat 1 more Shadows anywhere in the city and then meet your DCMA contact at the Police Station.
Your Reflection continues at the Police Station.

Shining in the Darkness (V1)

Either you have impeccable timing, or The Doubt has been awaiting your arrival. As you about to open the door to the VooDoo Shop, a Shadow appears and combat immediately starts.

Your Reflection cannot continue until this Shadow is defeated. It will remain at the VooDoo shop and await your return if it defeats you in combat.

When you defeat the Shadow, the DCMA informs you that there have been multiple Shadow sightings within the city.

You must defeat 3 more Shadows anywhere in the city and then meet your DCMA contact at the Police Station.

Shining in the Darkness (PS2)

"I hate to be the bearer of bad news, but it looks like things are going to get worse before they get better. Lots of agents are reporting some serious problems.

Look, I know this isn't your first rodeo, but I think you're going to need to prepare a bit more to be able to handle this thing."

Once you know 2 Techniques of any kind, your Reflection continues at the Park.

Shining in the Darkness (P1)

"The darkness this thing gives off is spreading. I'm telling you, if it comes down to a fight, it's going to be bad news unless somebody does something about it."

You must clear the city of 3 Taint. Once you're done, you should check in at the DCMA HQ to get an assessment of the city.

Your Reflection continues at the DCMA HQ.

Your Reflection continues at the DCMA HQ.

Shining in the Darkness (P3)

The upper levels of the DCMA Headquarters are buzzing with activity. It appears The Beast is a bigger problem than anyone anticipated.

"Look, you guys are the only ones who can stop this thing. You've already seen it in action. All we can do here is try to keep the city clean until you're able to finish the job."

Take the Battle Tested card from the Clues & Artifacts deck.
